Hello Everyone,

I want to remind you that the Charleston Arts Coalition <<http://rs6.net/tn.jsp?t=8plxto cab.0.0.5gxdvzbab.0& ts=S0339& p=http%3A%2F%2Fwww.peoplesartcenter.com%2F& id=preview>>, a group that began from the Redux Creative Spaces lecture in April, will be presenting a new panel that they independently organized titled "Creative Spaces: Developing a unified Center for the Arts". The discussion will be centered on practical ways to develop a single center for the arts in Charleston.

This panel will meet at THEATRE 99 this Tuesday July 1st from 6:30-8pm.
FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Panel members include:

Chris Price, of PrimeSouth Group, LLC
Urban planner Tripp Muldrow, of Arnett Muldrow & Associates,
Jonathan Brilliant, local artist and Gibbes Museum employee
Fred Delk of Columbia Development Corp.
Buff Ross, serving as moderator.

Read more info on the REDUX EVENTS PAGE <<http://www.reduxstudios.org/events.html>> <<http://rs6.net/tn.jsp?t=8plxto cab.0.0.5gxdvzbab.0& ts=S0339& p=http%3A%2F%2Fwww.reduxstudios.org%2Fevents.html& id=preview>>

Visitors planning on attending the event on July 1 are encouraged to draft questions and email them to questions@peoplesartcenter.com ahead of time as there will only be minimal time to answer questions the night of the event.

Theatre 99 is located at 280 Meeting Street, downtown Charleston, South Carolina, above the Bicycle Shoppe, with an entrance to the upstairs at the rear of the building. (843) 853-6687

Please come out and show your support of the group's amazing work and learn how to become united in our efforts to support the arts year round in our city.

Seth
